

Aboriginal Family Violence Prevention
& Legal Service Victoria
Standing Firm Against Family Violence

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST – POLICY OFFICER – FULL OR PART TIME

FVPLS Victoria is an Aboriginal Community Controlled Organisation dedicated to assisting Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander victims/survivors of family violence and sexual assault.

FVPLS Victoria provides culturally safe, frontline legal and non-legal assistance to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander victims/survivors of family violence and sexual assault. In addition, FVPLS provides early intervention/prevention services, community legal education and undertakes policy and law reform work.

Our Strategic Support Team works with our CEO, Antoinette Braybrook, to amplify the voices of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women, identify systemic issues, provide policy advice and law reform input, and advocate for better outcomes for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander victims/survivors.

We are looking for someone with strong connections to Aboriginal communities and confidence representing Aboriginal organisation at high level committees and forums to join our growing team.

We are keen to talk to you if you have experience and skills in the following areas:-

- Confidence representing Aboriginal women and/or communities in government, stakeholder and community forums
- Ability to build strong relationships with stakeholders, including ACCOs and Aboriginal communities
- Policy analysis and writing skills

At FVPLS Victoria we look for people who get on well with others and have knowledge and understanding of Aboriginal culture and values.

We strongly encourage Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people to consider applying for this position. Please see our website www.fvpls.org for the full position description.

For more details or to have a yarn about the position contact Laura (0402 217 594) or Jaynaya (0448 002 088).